FREED'S APPOINTMENT

Meeting Will Be Held by State Twelve Thousand People Wit- Idaho Sets Aside 230,000 Acres Public Has Luck in Selecting Fair Board; Purses Will Be Increased.

The appointment of Lester D. Freed on the state fair board, and also manager of the horse track, has brought joy to the horsemen. Freed is running on his second term, having been appointed the first time by ex-Governor Cutler, and has made a big success of the horse-racing end of the state fair.

Freed said that the board would meet some time during the present week and take up the programme for the fall meeting. The purses will be materially increased over last year, and from pres-ent indications there will be over 500 head of horses here for the fall meet-

The legislature has appropriated enough money to build 100 extra stalls, and an addition will also be made to the grandstand, which during the past two seasons has been found to be too small for the patronage of the track.

High School Basketball

The high school girls' team defeated the girls team from the Henager business college, Saturday evening, in the high school symmasium, by a score of 14 to 10. The gymnasium was crowded, and the rooters were in a continual uproar, as the score was close from the start and the game in doubt until the timer's whistle closed the game.

The players of each team were determined to win, and bitter rivalry was at its highest.

The game was the deciding context for the state championship, and the Henagers were full of confidence, as they relied upon Miss Elia Benson, an old-time star, to win the game.

Every one expected the college team to play the high school girls off their feet, but the latter surprised the college girls. Miss Benson, who had played a hard game, fainted and had to quit.

STANFORD WILL MEET VARSITY HERE AGAIN

The University of Utah meet with Stanford is practically a certainty. Coach Maddock received a letter Friday Stanford is practically a certainty. Coach Maddock received a letter Friday stating that Stanford would be represented in the western conference in Chicago and that her men would be passing through Salt Lake just before June I and would like to meet the varsity team. It will be remembered how the local men decisively defeated the Californians last summer and the Stanford boys are no doubt anxious to get a chance to turn the tables on their opponents. Whether they can or not remains to be seen, but at any rate there will be "things doing" on Cumming field when the teams of the two institutions meet.

Another feature of the season will be the relay carnival which is scheduled for May I. This is an annual event in the east, where the big colleges gather each year in Philadelphia and try for relay honors. There will be four events, a four man team from the various schools to enter each event. Besides the regular half-mile relay, which is one of the events in the state meet, there will be one, two and four-mile contests, which will give the long distance as well as the sprint men an opportunity to join in the meet. Perhaps the prettiest race should be the mile relay, in which each man runs 440 yards.

Holmstead is Star.

Although Earl Holmstead falled to make high score for Lehi he clearly stands out as the star of the game. W. Davis and Evans also played a steady game for Lehi. At forward on the Granite team, Love and Hamilton played great team work, the basket throwing of both being exceedingly clever. Winchester, a sub, did himself proud, as his playing was the cause of the spurt made during the second half.

At the close of the game, Principal Hopkins of the Lehf high school was given the trophy that was up for the champions. Friday evening, in the Lehi assembly hall, a banquet will be held in honor of the team, and at that time the trophy, which is a handsome loving cupstanding fully a foot in height, will be presented to the school.
